

Russia plans big spaceshot soon

Paris, June 2.—The United States has learnt within the past 24 hours that the Soviet Union plans a major spaceshot in the next few days, a United States official said at the Paris airshow today.

The official, who declined to be identified, said that a moonshot might be involved. He could not say whether it would be a manned shot.—U.P.I.